I INTRODUCTION TO THE EHF FINALS MEN 2023

We welcome all media representatives to the EHF Finals Men 2023 on 27/28 May at the Campushalle in Flensburg. It is the third edition of this spectacular season-ending tournament since the introduction of the EHF European League in the 2020/21 season.

So, after SC Magdeburg in 2021 and SL Benfica in 2022, who is going to become the third club to lift the coveted EHF European League Men trophy?

Montpellier, who overcame the strong resistance from Sporting CP by a single goal in last month's quarter-finals, are two-time EHF Champions League winners. In the first semi-final, they take on Füchse Berlin, who lost the final of the inaugural edition of the EHF Finals in 2021 to Magdeburg. In the quarter-finals, Füchse made up a four-goal deficit from the first leg against Kadetten Schaffhausen.

Fraikin BM. Granollers made the headlines in international handball last month with their stunning quarter-final victory over SG Flensburg-Handewitt. Now, the Spanish side are ready to face another German team in the second semi-final, Frisch Auf Göppingen, who have won Europe's second tier already four times. Göppingen had two clear wins over last season's EHF Finals contenders RK Nexø in the quarter-finals.

The stage is set for what promises to be another fantastic event for European club handball. Over its first three seasons, the EHF European League has developed into a highly popular competition, earning a place in the hearts of handball fans with its quality games and attractive playing style. We are confident the EHF Finals 2023 will deliver yet another proof of that positive development.

At the EHF and EHF Marketing, we pride ourselves on the positive and cooperative relationship with our colleagues from the media. Should you require any additional information or assistance, do not hesitate to get in contact with us – at the EHF Office in Vienna in the buildup to the event, or at the Campushalle in Flensburg during the EHF Finals Men weekend. We are happy to help you!

Accreditations

You can pick up your accreditation in the media centre. The entrance to the media centre is located in the Campushalle, on the northern side of the arena.

You can pick up your accreditation in the following time slots:

- Friday, 26 May 2023: 12:00 – 17:00
- Saturday, 27 May 2023: 13:30 – 17:30
- Sunday, 28 June 2023: 13:30 – 17:30

At the accreditation pick-up, you will be required to present a copy of this email and a valid photographic ID (e.g. passport or driving license) in order to collect your accreditation.

IMPORTANT: If for whatever reason you are not able to attend the event, you must cancel your accreditation and inform us by email: media@eurohandball.com. Failure to arrive at the event could mean that you do not receive accreditation at future EHF events.

Parking

Media parking is available at the P0 parking place at the Campushalle. You will be required to show your press card or the accreditation card upon your arrival. The number of spaces is limited and the parking works on a first come first serve basis.

Media centre opening hours

Saturday	13:30 - 22:00 CEST (press seats in the arena open until 23:00 CEST)
Sunday	13:30 - 22:00 CEST (press seats in the arena open until 23:00 CEST)

Resources available

The EHF Media team together with the tournament's hosts will do their utmost to provide all accredited media with as much access to the teams as possible. The journalists will be able to talk to the players and the coaches at the media calls and open trainings, in the mixed zone and also at the post-match press conferences.

For all media covering the event remotely we offer all post-match press conferences streamed on the Home of Handball YouTube, the quotes service will be at the journalists' disposal on the eurohandball.com website and we will also provide a limited number of pictures from the tournament via our cloud system.

Official event name/official hashtag

The official name of the event is the 'EHF European League Men Finals' or 'EHF Finals Men' for short. The hashtag for the event is #ehffinals.

Video recording

Video in the arena may only be recorded with the express permission of EHF Marketing GmbH. Please contact EHF Media Officer, Oliver Laaber (laaber@ehfmarketing.com | +43 676 770 9309), for further information in advance of the event. Equipment used for video recording without permission will be removed.

I MEDIA RULES AND GUIDELINES

Official EHF Rules of Conduct for ENG Crews

The following guidelines and rules of conduct for ENG Crews have been developed to make the job of ENG crews easier at EHF events. Upon receiving an accreditation and signing for an ENG bib, TV crews automatically agree to follow the EHF Rule of Conduct for TV ENG crews:

- 1 ENG crews are obliged to produce a media identification card upon request.
- 2 The Host Broadcaster acts on behalf of the European Handball Federation/EHF Marketing GmbH.
- 3 ENG personnel are requested to wear the bib and accreditation at ALL times.
- 4 All ENG crews must use the stickers provided on their camera equipment.
- 5 The bib and the accreditation are only valid for the EHF Finals Men 2023.
- 6 Only the Host Broadcaster is permitted onto the playing court.
- 7 Right holders have to stay in the positions designated to them during the games
- 8 Non-rights holders are not permitted to film during the matches.
- 9 The guidelines and instructions of the Host Broadcasters MUST be followed at all time.
- 10 At no time, before, during or after the match are ENG crews permitted to stay in the area behind the players' seats or behind the official table. They must place themselves in the position advised by the EHF.
- 11 ENG crews are only permitted in the TV area of the mixed zone.
- 12 ENG crews are not permitted to interfere/obstruct in the work of the Host Broadcaster.

I FLENSBURG HOSTS THE EHF FINALS MEN 2023

The third edition of the EHF Finals Men, the final tournaments of the EHF European League, will be played in Germany this year, with German club SG Flensburg-Handewitt hosting the tournament.

The decision has been announced by the European Handball Federation and its marketing arm, EHF Marketing GmbH, following a successful bidding process and subsequent confirmation by the EHF Executive Committee. The selection is in line with the overarching endeavour to host the final events of the EHF European League at neutral venues. SG Flensburg-Handewitt has committed to hosting the event, even in case the team does not qualify for the final weekend of the competition. SG Flensburg-Handewitt, will follow Rhein-Neckar Löwen (2021) and SL Benfica (2022) as hosts for the EHF Finals Men.

David Szlezak, EHF Marketing Managing Director, said: “We have seen the success of organising outstanding events for multiple seasons in the EHF Champions League and are now making further progress in the EHF European League as well. The Campushalle has seen several top-class international matches and I’m confident that we will witness a flawless organisation worthy of the EHF Finals Men.”

Michael Wiederer, EHF President, said: “The EHF Finals Men in Flensburg will mark the prelude to series of major European handball tournaments held in Germany, followed by the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2023 in Cologne in June and the Men’s EHF EURO 2024 which is played in six German venues in January next year.”

EHF EUROPEAN LEAGUE MEN 2022/23 SEASON

Playing system and dates

NO DEBUTANTS, THREE COUNTRIES STILL INVOLVED AND 11,226 GOALS SCORED

FACTS AND FIGURES: IMPORTANT NUMBERS BEFORE THE START OF THE EHF FINALS MEN 2023

After Fraikin Granollers eliminated SG Flensburg-Handewitt by a spectacular 35:27 away win on German ground, the EHF finals of the Men's EHF European League will be played without the hosts for the first time. Two German sides (Füchse Berlin and Frisch Auf Göppingen) and one club from France (Montpellier) and Spain (Granollers) each will lock horns on 27/28 May in Northern Germany. All of them have won at least two European Cup trophies (in total ten titles) and all of them have at least once been part of previous EHF Finals in EHF Cup and/or European League.

Here are some facts & figures after the quarter-finals:

0 participants of the EHF Finals 2022 in Lisbon are part of the 2023 edition: winners Benfica were eliminated in the Last 16, runners-up and third ranked teams Magdeburg and Plock played in the EHF Champions League (and duelled there in the quarter-finals), RK Nexø were eliminated in the quarter-finals

0 French team ever won the second tier competition of the Men's EHF European Cup - Montpellier have again the chance to do so

0 former European League winner was among the eight quarter-finalists - and therefore none is among the four semi-finalists for the first time since the implementation of the EHF finals in 2013 (EHF Cup until 2019) the hosts are not part of the event: SG Flensburg-Handewitt were eliminated by Granollers in the quarter-finals

1 goal was the smallest overall margin in the quarter-final pairings: Montpellier beat Sporting 63:62 in aggregate

1 team won both leg of the quarter-finals: Göppingen (against Nexø)

1 former EHF Champions League winners is still part of the competition: Montpellier (2003, 2018)

1 pairing ended by two away wins (Flensburg vs Granollers), one by two home wins (Berlin vs Kadetten)

1 former EHF Cup and Champions League top scorer is back on track after his injury break: Hans Lindberg (Füchse Berlin), who also is one of two players who won the "big 5": Olympic Games, World Championship, EHF EURO, EHF Champions League and EHF Cup (besides his Danish compatriot Niklas Landin).

2 German teams are/were part of each the men's and women's EHF Finals in Flensburg and Graz: Göppingen, Berlin (men), Thüringer HC and Dortmund (women).

2 group winners only have made it to the EHF Finals: Montpellier (group A) and Berlin (group D); Flensburg (B) and Nexø (C) failed on their way

2 of the 4 teams still in competition had already been part of EHF Champions League FINAL4 tournaments in Cologne: Berlin and Montpellier.

2 teams started their EL mission in qualification (R2): Montpellier and Göppingen - Füchse and Granollers were seeded for the group phase

3 former EHF Cup winners are part of the event: Granollers (1995, 1996), Göppingen (2011, 2012, 2016, 2017) and Berlin (2015, 2018).

3 nations are represented by the four semi-finalists: Germany (2), Spain and France

4 semi-finalists, which means all, had been part of previous EHF Finals: Montpellier (2014), Berlin (2014, 2015, 2017, 2018, 2019), Göppingen (2013, 2016, 2017, 2018) and Granollers (2016)

4 quarter-final matches were attended by 3,000 an more fans

7 German teams have won the men's second tier competition since the implementation of the EHF finals in 2013: Rhein-Neckar Löwen (2013), Füchse Berlin (2015, 2018), Frisch Auf Göppingen (2016, 2017), THW Kiel (2019) in the EHF Cup and SC Magdeburg (2021) in the European League. The only exceptions were Pick Szeged (2014) and Benfica (2022).

9 goals was the biggest margin in a single quarter-final, when Göppingen beat Nexe 32:23 in the first leg

13 victories in 14 matches since the start of the group phase is almost the perfect outcome of Füchse Berlin, they lost only to Schaffhausen

13 goals were the biggest overall margin, in the pairing Göppingen vs Nexe (63:50)

17 goals was the biggest margin since the start of the group phase match, when Göppingen won 40:23 at Vejer Veszprem – the re-match ended with the second biggest margin of 16 goals (46:30).

different clubs had been part of the seven EHF (Cup) Finals since 2013 - no debutant will be added this season

21 matches since the start of the group phase ended with an overall 70 or more goals (16 group phase, three Last 16, one quarter-final).

21 goals were scored by Kadetten's Icelandic wing Odinn Thor Rikhardsson in the two quarter-final matches against Berlin. Including his 24 goals in the Last1 against Skjern, he scored 45 goals in the knock-out stage.

46 clubs had started their journey in this competition, 20 in qualification phase 1, 14 in qualification phase 2 and 12 were seeded for the group stage.

54 goals were the low-score in a quarter-final match, when Berlin turned it around against Kadetten by a 30:24.

70 goals was the high-score in a quarter-final match, funny enough, when Kadetten beat Berlin 37:33 in the first leg on home ground

82 goals were the high-score in a single match since the start of the group phase, when Valur beat FTC in the group phase 43:39

110 goals were scored by Rikhardsson in the whole competition to top the top scorer list ahead of Martim Coasta (Sporting/102) and bence Nagy (FTC/99). Best scorer still in competition is Antonio Garcia Robledo (Granollers) with 81 goals.

188 matches have been played by now, 20 in qualification round 1, 24 in qualification round 2, 120 in the group phase, 16 in the Last 16 and eight in the quarter-finals

485 goals were scored in the eight quarter-final matches, which means an average of 60.6

7,911 fans at the match Füchse Berlin vs Kadetten Schaffhausen was the highest attendance of the season, in total, the Swiss-German duels were attended by 11,411 spectators

8,723 goals were scored since the start of the group phase: including 7,256 goals in the 120 group matches and 982 in the 16 Last 16 matches - the average is 60.57 goals per match

11,226 goals were scored in all 188 European League men matches including the qualification, 1116 goals in round 1 and 1387 goals in round 2 - the overall average was 59,71 goals per match

27,801 fans attended the eight quarter-final matches, which means an average of 3,475 fans

PAIRINGS

I MONTPELLIER HB (FRA) VS FÜCHSE BERLIN (GER)

Semi-final 1: Saturday 27 May at 15:30 CEST, Flensburg (GER)

Referees: Daniel Accoto Martins / Roberto Accoto Martins - POR

Delegates: Urmo Sitsi – EST (EHF Court of Handball) and Zigmars Sondors – LAT (EHF Technical Refereeing Committee)

- After having finished on top of group A, Montpellier easily cruised through the Last 16 by beating FTC twice, but then had a harder nut to crack with Sporting, winning only by one goal in aggregate (32:32, 31:30)
- Montpellier are still the only French men's team, which won a EHF competition - twice the EHF Champions League in 2003 and 2018
- In 2015, they were finalists - after beating their current semi opponent Füchse Berlin in the semi-final - but lost against Pick Szeged
- In the 2020/21 season, Montpellier were eliminated by Berlin in the quarter-finals
- Playmaker Diego Simonet had not only been the first Argentinian to win the EHF Champions League in 2018, but also also still is the only non-European MVP of the EHF FINAL4
- Left wing Hugo Descat is ruled out with a torn cruciate ligament
- Patrice Canayer is the longest serving coach in European top handball, being at the helm since 1994; since then, he won more than 40 trophies with the club
- Giorgi Tskhovrebadze recently made handball history by scoring the buzzer-beater to beat Hungary and clinch the first EHF EURO ticket for Georgia; next season, he will join German club Gummersbach
- With a scoring percentage of 68.5% Montpellier have the highest attacking efficiency of all teams in the European League
- French youngsters Yanis Lenne (59) and Kylian Villemot (57) are Montpelli's best European League scorers by now
- Combining for 183 saves, Charles Bolzinger (96) and Remi Desbonnet (87) form one of the best goalkeeper duos in the competition
- 13 victories in 14 matches is their outcome in the 2022/23 season; after becoming the first team with ten wins in ten group matches, they easily beat Skjern twice in the Last 16
- In the quarter-finals, they were close to elimination after the 33:37 away defeat at Kadetten, but turned the tide by a 30:24 home win
- Berlin play their eighth final tournament since 2012 in three different competitions: 2012 EHF Champions League, 2014, 2015, 2017, 2018, 2019 in the EHF Cup, 2021 and 2023 in the European League
- In 2015 and 2018 they won the trophies, besides they were finalists in 2017, 2019 and 2021 - always losing the final against another German team: Göppingen, Kiel and Magdeburg
- The last defeat against a non-German team was in the 2014 semi-finals (on home court) against eventual winners Pick Szeged
- Füchse's squad for the season includes three players who won the IHF World Championship with Denmark in January 2023: Mathias Gisdal, who was top scorer and MVP of the tournament, Jacob Holm and Hans Lindberg
- Lindberg broke his hand at the group match at Irun, but had his comeback, the 41 years old is EHF Cup and Champions League top scorer and also is one of two players who won the "big 5": Olympic Games, World Championship, EHF EURO, EHF Champions League and EHF Cup (besides his Danish compatriot Niklas Landin)
- their current top scorers in the EL is the outgoing Montenegrin Milos Vujovic (69 goals)
- Team captain Paul Druix is ruled out after he tore his Achilles tendon in the Germany EHF EURO Cup match against Sweden end of April
- Jaron Siewert (29) is the youngest coach in the EL, he took over Füchse at the age of 26

I FRAIKIN BM. GRANOLLERS (ESP) VS FRISCH AUF GÖPPINGEN (GER)

Semi-final 2: Saturday 27 May at 18:00 CEST, Flensburg (GER)

Referees: Amar Konjicanin / Dino Konjicanin - BIH

Delegates: Nicolae Vizitiu – MDA (EHF Court of Appeal)

Viktor Konopliastyi - UKR

- Granollers have overcome two home defeats in both knock-out stages - in the Last 16 against Skanderborg and in the quarter-finals against Flensburg to make it to the EHF finals
  - The 35:27 away victory at Flensburg after losing the first leg 30:31 was the biggest surprise of the whole European League season
  - Granollers finished the group phase third ranked, below Nexø and Sporting and are the only third-ranked team from the group phase, which made it to Flensburg
  - With 81 goals on his account (since the start of the group phase), 39 years old Antonio Garcia is the fifth best overall scorer of the competition and the best, who is part of the EHF finals . Second best scorer is 19 years old Nigerian Faruk Yusuf with 65 goals, who is on loan from Kielce
  - Granollers have qualified for the EHF Finals for the second time after 2016, when they finished third - and their 2023 semi-final opponent Göppingen took the trophy
  - In 1994/95 and 1995/96, Granollers had won the EHF Cup, one year later, they made it to the semis again
  - Granollers count on an almost All-Spanish squad, the only exceptions are Yusuf, the Brazilians Rangel Luan de Rosa (best goalkeeper of the competition with 159 saves) and Guilherme Torriani and experienced Chilean line player Rodrigo Salinas
  - During the 2022/23 season, Granollers lost their at that time best scorer Pol Rivera, who transferred to Barça
  - Coach Antonio Rama Garcia never played at or coached another club than Granollers, he is his head coach since 2018
- Besides THW Kiel, Göppingen are the record winners of the EHF Cup with four trophies within six years (2011, 2012, 2016, 2017); they won their last trophy on home ground, beating Berlin in the 2017 final
  - After a five-year absence, they qualified again for the second tier competition, having their first European League season in club history
  - In 2018, Göppingen played their last EHF Finals, losing both matches against German opponents: first the semi against Berlin, then the placement match against hosts Magdeburg
  - After finishing second in group A - below Montpellier - Göppingen won all four knock-out matches, first in the Last 16 against Valur, then in the quarter-finals against Nexø - the overall they are at 12 wins and two defeats so far
  - In qualification, Göppingen eliminated 2022 European League Last 16 participant and former EHF Cup winners TBV Lemgo
  - Markus Baur became new head coach in November 2022 after the club parted ways with Hartmut Mayerhoffer, who had been in charge for five years
  - With 60 goals since the start of the group phase, left wing Marcel Schiller is their best scorer by now, ahead of Croat Josip Sarac (52)
  - Playmaker Tim Kneule is the only player with four EHF Cup trophies on his tally, playing for Göppingen since 2006
  - their top transfer of the current season, Slovenian defence specialist Blaz Blagontinsek, will join Flensburg this summer
  - In German Bundesliga, Göppingen have no chance anymore to qualify for the next European League season, currently ranked on the 14th position

I IMPORTANT REGULATIONS

WHAT DECIDES WHEN TWO OR MORE TEAMS HAVE THE SAME NUMBER OF POINTS?

All matches of the EHF Finals Men shall be played in 2 x 30 minutes.

If a semi-final match or the Final ends in a draw, there will be a five minutes break followed by one extra time of 2 x 5 minutes, there will be a one minute half time break at half time for the changeover of teams.

If the 3/4 placement match ends in a draw, there shall be no extra time, the match will be decided directly by penalty throws.

If penalty throws are needed to decide the match, the procedure is as follows:

- Only players (incl. goalkeepers) who are listed on the match report and are not suspended or disqualified at the end of the playing time are entitled to participate at the penalty throws.

- At the technical meeting the teams will be informed at which goal the penalty throws will be taken. The team taking the first penalty throw shall be determined by the referees by drawing lots. The team winning the draw may choose whether it wishes to throw first or last.

- Prior to the penalty throws, each team shall name five by handing the referees a list of numbers. These players shall then take one throw each until a decision (a winner) is reached, alternating with their opponents. Each team is free to determine the sequence in which throwers will take their throws.

- The goalkeepers may be freely selected from the match report and exchanged in accordance with the rules of the game. Goalkeepers may take throws and throwers may perform as goalkeepers.

- If the scores are equal after the first round of penalty throws, it shall be continued until a decision is reached. In the second round, the other team shall start. Again, five players shall be named who are eligible to play (the players named before may be named once again).

- In the second round, a decision is reached when a goal difference arises after both teams have taken one throw each.

- Serious infractions committed during penalty throws shall be sanctioned by disqualification. If a thrower is disqualified or suffers an injury, an eligible substitute player shall be supplementary named.

- While the throws are being taken, only the player taking the throw, the current goalkeeper and the referees may enter the respective half of the playing court.

- If the number of eligible players falls below five, players may be named to take a second throw in the same round.
