- The last MOTW in the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2022/23 season features two teams that have not played at an EHF FINAL4 (since 2010) before.

- SC Magdeburg were CL winners in 2002 but appear in their first quarter-final since 2004; Orlen Wisla Plock have not been in CL quarter-finals before.

- The reverse fixture in Poland last week ended in a 22:22 draw, after Plock came back from a 22:18 deficit in the last five minutes; Magdeburg goalkeeper Mike Jensen excelled with 15 saves for a save rate of over 40 per cent.

- Magdeburg and Plock also met in the group phase this season, when both teams won their home match.

- Finishing runners-up in group A, Magdeburg went to the quarter-finals directly; Plock secured sixth place and a play-off spot only in the last round of the group phase.

- The teams played each other in the semi-finals of the inaugural EHF Finals Men two years ago, with Magdeburg winning 30:29 – and lifting the trophy the next day.

- Magdeburg have won three different European club competitions: Champions League (2002), EHF Cup (1999, 2001, 2007), and European League (2021); Plock's best result are two European League semi-finals (2021, 2022).

- Plock can become only the second team from Poland to play at the EHF FINAL4, after Barlinek Industria Kielce; Magdeburg would be the sixth team from Germany, after THW Kiel, HSV Hamburg, SG Flensburg-Handewitt, Rhein-Neckar Löwen, and Füchse Berlin.

- Plock are in their 15th CL season; Magdeburg are in their fifth – but first in 17 years, after they finally won the German league title again in 2022, ending a 21-year wait.

- Magdeburg top scorer Gisli Thorgeir Kristjánsson fractured his left ankle against Plock last week and is out for the rest of the season; left back Philipp Weber also picked up an injury last week and will miss the MOTW.

- Magdeburg have lost once at home this CL season, against Paris Saint-Germain HB; Plock have won only two away matches – but both were crucial: against FC Porto in the last round of the group phase, and against HBC Nantes after a shootout in the second leg of the play-offs.

- Plock won two of the 20 European cup matches the club has ever played in Germany; both wins happened in the EL last season, against Füchse and TBV Lemgo Lippe.

- Plock's top scorer is Tin Lucin with 79 goals; after Kristjánsson's injury, Dutch right back Kay Smits is Magdeburg's leading scorer with 64 goals.

- Injury report – Magdeburg: Ómar Ingi Magnússon (heel); Magnus Saugstrup (knee); Gisli Kristjánsson, Philipp Weber, Oscar Bergendahl (all ankle); Plock: N/A.
